

Diners of SBC

Along historic Route 66 in Southern California, classic diners are the thing. Often accompanied by famous Route 66 roadside attractions, these restaurants-of-old are perfect for filling the tank. Diners and road-trips go together like pancakes and syrup, eggs and bacon, burgers and fries, fried chicken and mashed potatoes... you get the idea. What more could road-weary travelers ask for than a corner booth at a retro diner? So get out of the car, stretch those legs and grab some grub.
